AS A WOMEN'S BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

LANCASTER, Pa – Dutch Gold Honey, Inc. is pleased to announce their recent re-certification as a Women's Business Enterprise by the Women's Business Development Center (WBDC), Philadelphia, PA on behalf of the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC).

Under the leadership of Nancy Gamber, Dutch Gold Honey President and CEO, and Marianne Gamber, the corporation's Secretary/Treasurer, Dutch Gold Honey maintains its eligibility for this Women's Business Enterprise Certification. On the WBE re-certification, Nancy Gamber commented, "With the re-certification, Dutch Gold Honey will continue to enjoy new opportunities for growth and expansion."

WBENC is a nonprofit organization committed to educating the public, the government, and America's corporations about the products and services available from companies owned, managed and controlled by women.

WBENC was created in early 1997 to meet the need for access to a nationally recognized standard of certification for Women's Business Enterprises. Endorsed by corporations that recognize the benefit to their communities of eliminating market barriers, WBENC utilizes the networks and expertise of a coalition of local organizations whose collective mission can best be described as serving the business support needs of America's women-owned and operated small businesses.

Founded in 1946, Dutch Gold Honey, Inc. is the largest independent packer of honey in the United States, packing over 55 million pounds of honey annually. For more information on the company, visit the web site at www.dutchgoldhoney.com.
